

State Board of Barber Examiners.209.

See notes to section 221.

221.

The portion of this section exempting from the act of 1904, chapter 226, certain persons theretofore employed as barbers, etc., held not to create an arbitrary or unreasonable discrimination so as to make the act of 1904 invalid. Criswell v. State, 126 Md. 104.

Undertakers.230.

See notes to section 236.

236.*

The act of 1902, chapter 160, is valid; it does not create arbitrary and unreasonable classifications. A person is not required, in order to secure a license, to qualify as an embalmer; the test relates to knowledge of undertaking, sanitation, preservation of the dead, and disinfecting deceased persons, apartments, etc. Counts in indictment upheld. Special pleas held defective. See notes to article 1, section 14, and article 23, section 228. Keller v. State, 122 Md. 681.

1902, ch. 160, sec. 8. 1904, ch. 389, sec. 8. 1908, ch. 496, sec. 8.
1910, ch. 444, sec. 8 (p. 403).

237. Before any person, co-partnership or corporation shall hereafter engage in the business of undertaking in the State of Maryland and before any member of any such co-partnership, assistant or employee of any such person, co-partnership or corporation or officer of such corporation whose duties will engage him or her in the care, preparation, disposition, or burial of the dead shall discharge the duties of such business, employment or office, and before any person, co-partnership or corporation now so engaged in said business of undertaking in this State; and before any member of any such co-partnership, assistant or employee of any such person, co-partnership or corporation or officer of such corporation, whose duties now engage him or her in the care, preparation, disposition or burial of the dead, who shall have failed to register with the said Board in accordance with Section 236, shall then continue in such business, such persons, co-partnerships, corporations, members of such co-partnerships, and all assistants and employees of any such persons, co-partnerships or corporations and officers of such corporations, whose duties engage him or her in the care, preparation, disposition or burial of the dead, shall apply to the said Board for a license to practice the same; thereupon the applicant as aforesaid shall present himself or herself before said Board at a time and place to be fixed by said Board, and if the said Board shall find upon due examination that the applicant has been employed at least 2 years prior to said application by some person, firm or corporation

*See foot note to this section on page 1150 of volume 1 of the Annotated Code: the act of 1910, chapter 444, has now been held void—see notes to section 237.
